

Geocasanet

Testimonial

We were very pleased to buy a “lovely home from home” in Tuscany that we found through using Geocasanet Immobiliare located at the Ponte del Diavolo near Borgo a Mozzano.

Right from the start we found that Barbara Marovelli , and her brother Giancarlo, were easy to communicate with (their good command of the English language is a great bonus), they were attentive in listening to what we were looking for, and important details in regard to aspects of contracts, fees and charges were explained to us. We have found them to be approachable and available whenever we needed to call at various stages of searching for a property and then going through with the deal.

We have found them to be punctual for appointments which is very important when you are looking for a property during short term visits. Our experience is that this agency is run in a friendly manner and in a businesslike professional style.
